Starr Bright!

Leave it to Black, Starr & Frost to design a jewelry collection for the woman who knows wearing just the right amount of sparkle is a style essential—whether it's stacked on her wrist, dangling from her ears or fitted on her finger. That's what the bespoke Newport Beach-based brand (America's first jeweler since its founding in 1810) brings forth with its new Signature collection of basics: stackables (rings, bangles and bracelets), earrings, opera-length necklaces and cuffs—all bedecked with diamonds, a girl's best friend. $1,750-$200,000, 341 Bayside Drive, Newport Beach, blackstarrfrost.com –Tina Borgatta
